

Charles-Edouard Bréhier

Université de Pau et des Pays de l'Adour, France

charles-edouard.brehier@univ-pau.fr

I will discuss how to construct temporal discretization schemes for some classes of multiscale stochastic ordinary and partial differential equations. While well-known averaging or diffusion approximation principles are obtained for the considered systems, it is challenging to obtain numerical schemes which are efficient with time-step size independent of the scale separation parameter, and can capture the limiting evolution. I will present examples of such asymptotic preserving schemes and of associated uniform accuracy results.