

Beatrice Andreoli

University of Vienna, Austria

beatrice.andreoli@univie.ac.at

We introduce a new concept of variable bandwidth that is based on the truncation of Wilson expansions. For this model we derive both (nonuniform) sampling theorems, the complete reconstruction of a function from its samples, and necessary density conditions for sampling.

Joint work with Karlheinz Gröchenig (University of Vienna).